

Sample Program

Prelude and Fugue in g minor

Marcel Dupré
(died 1971)

Performed by Pierre Franglais (a simple Frenchman, who now miraculously can play the organ after being struck by lightning)

The Fowleluia Chorus

G. F. Handel
(tonight, he's rolling in his grave)

Performed on kazoos by Your Local Choir

Epilogue (from Hommage à Frescobaldi)

Jean Langlais
(sadly, no longer with us)

Performed by Pierre Franglais, with his hands tied behind his back

- - - Intermission - - -
Time for Treats in the Lobby!

Toccatà and Fugue in d minor

J. S. Bach
(did quite well through 1749
and then not so hot after 1750)

Performed by Pierre Franglais, accompanied by a lights show

The Monster Mash

Bobby Pickett and Leonard Capizzi
(Who knows what they're up to)

Performed by Your Local Soloists

Le Freak

Chic
(they will live forever!)
Adapted for the organ by Pierre Franglais

Children in the audience are invited to come forward with Your Local Soloists to dance and "freak out!"
